

The authors – les auteurs

Elizabeth Charlton, New Zealand, archivist of the Marist Archives Cerdon-Center, Wellington, New Zealand.

Edward Clisby FMS, a New Zealander, since decades involved in Marist research and Marist publications. Brother Edward spent many years in their general house in Rome and is since back in New Zealand. He is especially known for his edition of letters by the first brothers in the Pacific and by writing their biographies. Recent book publication: Far Distant Shores. A history of the Marist Brothers in the Pacific 1838-2013, 2017.

Jane Frances SM, New Zealand Marist Sister, former superior general of her congregation.

Romuald Gibson FMS, a New Zealander. Br Romuald was engaged in teaching, renewal courses for his congregations, and has published widely about the Marist Brothers. At present he is living in Kaikohe, New Zealand.

Alois Greiler SM, Germany, at present in Dublin. He holds a licentiate and a doctorate from the Catholic University of Louvain, Belgium (1998).

Gerard Hall SM, Brisbane, Australia, professor of theology.

Anthony King SM, Sydney, Villa Maria.

Patricia Leamy SMSM, a New Zealander, she worked abroad, also as part of the general administration of her congregation. Her latest publication is a book about the SMSM in New Zealand Aotearoa.

Gaston Lessard SM, Québec, Marist historian, editor of Marist sources, many Marist publications and conferences.

Gail Reneker SM, Australia, former superior general of her congregation.

Rosemary Simon SM, at present in Levuka, Fiji.

Justin Taylor SM, New Zealand. Lecturer in New Testament Studies at the Marist seminary in Greenmeadows, New Zealand, and 23 years at the prestigious Dominican Institute of the École biblique in Jerusalem. Author of the Colin-biography to be published soon.

Gemma Wilson SM, a New Zealander, Sister Gemma is the founder of the New Zealand organization against human trafficking. Sister Gemma was part of the general administration of her congregation in Rome.